Program Description

Drama is the most conventional form of art that dates back to ancient times. Pyjama Drama is a drama program specially curated for kids. The aim of the program is to inculcate values and life skills in kids at a young age. Through a detailed focus on different aspects of drama like voice, speech, public speaking, acting and design, the program conducts a theme-based drama-session every weekend. The sessions are going to be highly interactive and personalized with a special focus on the social-emotional learning of the child. The sessions are going to be fun and at the same time, will provide intensive in-class engagement. The highlight of the program is the peer-sharing (showcase) component, which will take place in every 5th session for which the children will be provided with personal guidance and time for preparations.
